

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 3, 2009

Contact: Kim Little
Phone: 217.698.4097
Cell: 217.622.6966
Email: springfieldmoms.org@gmail.com

SPRINGFIELD MOMS HELPS READERS NAVIGATE THE HOLIDAY SEASON WITH THEIR POPULAR AND NEWLY UPDATED “HOLIDAZE” WEB PAGES

Springfield, IL. – ‘Tis not the season to be unorganized, and the Springfield Moms website offers comprehensive “HoliDaze” resources updated with the latest holiday events, easy recipes, Santa visits, tradition ideas for Christmas and Hanukkah and updated Cookie Walk and Tree Farm lists among other resources.

“We are excited to offer area families information about so many different holiday opportunities in an easily accessible format,” says Springfield Moms founder and president Kim Little. “Looking for the perfect teacher gift? We’ve got recommendations straight from teachers on their favorites (and overdone ones!). You can also find kids’ seasonal book recommendations, classroom party craft and game activities, daytrips, unique online shopping sites, charitable opportunities and so much more.”

Check out these popular HoliDaze categories:

- Holiday Art and Craft Fairs
- Santa Visits
- Give Back This Season
- Holiday Happenings in the Springfield Area
- Valuing Diversity During the Holiday Season
- Holiday Day and Night Trips
- Book Recommendations for Christmas, Hanukkah and Kwanzaa
- Child Safety Tips for the Holidays
- Classroom Party Ideas: Winter Crafts, Games and Snacks

The popular SpringfieldMoms.org website recently celebrated its fifth year online and now welcomes nearly 3,500 registered readers who receive bi-monthly E-Updates. The site averages more than 12,000 visitors and 8,000 unique hits each month.

For more information about the Springfield Moms website and the HoliDaze section, visit <http://springfieldmoms.org/category/resources/?tag=holidaze+holidaze> ###